

New England Rare Coin Galleries

Catalog Mailer #4

OUR DECEMBER CATALOG

Thank you for your patience! It's been quite some time since our last catalog. We have been extremely busy and have not, until now, had time to put this catalog together.

We have tried to present our clients with a selection of coins we feel offers the best possible value in today's market. All coins are accurately and conservatively graded and priced fairly considering the quality of the coins offered.

More important, we have done our best to stock only those coins which we feel offer solid investment potential. At NEW ENGLAND RARE COIN GALLERIES we consider it our obligation to recommend to our clients those coins which we feel will appreciate in value over the years. We also protect our customers by carefully checking all coins offered for authenticity and guaranteeing all coins to be as such.

We want you to profit by ordering coins from us. We constantly strive to offer what we consider to be the best overall value in the coin business today.

Our prices may not be the lowest (in some cases they may even be the highest!), but when you compare price, compare quality as well. Without both, the comparison means nothing. Time and time again we've been told by collectors that in order to receive a coin equivalent to what NEW ENGLAND RARE COIN GALLERIES call borderline unc, for example, they must order a coin graded B.U. or even Ch. B.U. from some other mail order dealers. So of course, these other dealers can advertise their coins at lower prices than we can.

We certainly do appreciate your business, and assure you that we intend to do everything we can to keep it! Please let us know if there is any thing we can do for you.

Most sincerely,

Jim Halperin
Charles Southwick
Chris Tracey,
and the rest of the staff at
NEW ENGLAND RARE COIN GALLERIES

CHOICE TYPE COINS
Graded by the Sheldon's scale

MS-60...Our Mint-State 60 coins are strictly Uncirculated, but may have an average number of bag marks, or not be sharply struck. Copper coins will be toned, or Brown Unc., sometimes with traces of original mint red. Generally coins listed here as MS-60 are what most dealers sell as Ch. Unc. or Ch. BU.

MS-65...Our MS-65 coins are fully lustrous, with few if any noticeable bag marks or abrasions. Copper coins will be fully lustrous with at least 50% original red. Most dealers would call our MS-65 coins Gem Unc. or Gem BU.

MS-70...Our MS-70 coins are what we consider true gems. Most early type coins are extremely rare in this condition. Some simply do not exist in this condition. Our MS-70 coins are 100% fully struck, with full blazing mint frost, and with no noticeable bag marks or abrasions. Copper coins are fully brilliant with 100% full red and no carbon spots.

Nickel and silver coins may or may not have original toning. Please state your preference in this regard when ordering.

We do not sell processed, whizzed, or recolored type coins.

SPECIAL OFFER !!

1888-0 DOLLARS

WE HAVE THEM IN STOCK, READY FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY.

A SLEEPER COIN ... The forecaster has recently recommended the purchase of 1888-0 dollars for investment. So do we! In our opinion the 1888-0 dollar is scarcer in B.U. condition than the 1889-0 or 1890-0 dollars. We expect 1888-0 dollar rolls to sell in the $250 - $300 range within 2 years.

Due to recent publicity given this date, real choice B.U. 1888-0 dollar rolls have become extremely difficult to obtain. Very few dealers have these in stock.

Through a fortunate purchase we were able to acquire 104 B.U. rolls. All coins are choice frosty original B.U. -- absolutely sliders. We offer these to our customers on a first-come, first-served basis...

1 roll for ...	$135.00
10 or more rolls ...	$130.00 each
50 or more rolls ...	$125.00 each

We strongly recommend the lower denominations for long-term investment rather than the bullion pieces such as $20's & $10's & $5 Libs. Especially recommended at today's market: $1 type 1 & 3, $2 1/2 Libs., $5 Indians in Ch. & Gem BU condition. Also $1 type 2 and $3 pcs. in all grades.

GENUINE U.S. MINT COIN DIES

A UNIQUE NUMISMATIC OPPORTUNITY

Each die was used in the production of the 1968-S proof-sets. Each die is serial numbered, and cancelled by the U.S. mint. No more dies will be available until our limited supply of these is exhausted.

After the mint resumed production of proof coins in 1968, the facilities did not include means for destruction of the used dies. Consequently, a number of the dies used for proof coins, fell into the hands of a well-known former San Francisco coin dealer.

We consider ourselves fortunate to have had the opportunity to purchase the entire remaining portion (3,000 pieces) of this famous hoard. These dies are completely legal for collectors to own, as they were cancelled by the mint in varying degrees so that they could no longer be used in production of coins, although a small part of the design remained on some of the dies. On the overwhelming majority of these, the detail was completely destroyed. Therefore, we have divided these dies into 3 categories...

- 1) Average grade: No detail at all remains. Approximately 85% of the dies fall into this category.
- 2) Some detail: Perhaps a few letters or digits of the date, or some part(s) of the design are discernable. About 12% of the dies fall into this category.
- 3) Exceptional detail: Usually 10-20% (in a few cases 20% to as much as 40%) of the detail remains intact. Very rare in this condition. Only about 3% of the dies fall into this category.

These coin dies should prove to be an excellent investment over the years. This is really a unique opportunity. Consider the following reasons...

- 1) Only a limited number of these are available. When the mint authorities found out about the release of these dies, they spent about $50,000 on new equipment to be used to melt future dies. Thus, no more dies can ever be available to the public.
- 2) These are rare collector's items that every coin collector will want. Compare the total number of dies (4,500) to the mintage of coins selling for $500 or more! Plus, consider that there are approx. 450 obverse and 450 reverse dies of each denomination in existence. A total of only 450 complete sets can possibly exist, and more likely the number of complete sets will be much less than that.
- 3) After this hoard is dispersed, there will be no further hoards to ever drive the market price down. No large group of these can ever again enter the market. Demand will increase and the supply will dry up. This can only drive the price up.
- 4) There will be a great collector interest as each die is a fascinating piece of numismatic history. Each die is serial numbered, so each is in a sense different. A complete set or even a single die would make a unique and fascinating display.
- 5) These are the best dies available. This group of 3,000 pieces, for the most part, consists of dies which were hand selected, from the original hoard of 4,500 pieces for having the most remaining detail.
- 6) They are the actual dies used to make the 1968-S proof sets. They're made of highest quality steel and weigh an average of 2 1/2 lb. (depending on denomination).

- 7) We don't expect these to last very long. The first 1,500 specimens were a fast sellout. These should sell even faster, as many are of higher quality. As our supply of these dwindles, we will probably raise the prices on these.
- 8) These are not just a collector's item and solid investment, but they would make a perfect gift, particularly because of their investment potential.
- 9) There is no better numismatic-related investment. As soon as this hoard has been dispersed, and these dies are no longer as readily available, prices are bound to skyrocket! We expect these to be selling for two or three times these prices within a couple of years. Perhaps ten to fifteen times these prices in 10 years.

* Price on request

We have been forced to increase our price on grades 2 & 3, as we are nearly sold out on both of these grades. At this time we have only 3 complete sets of grade 3 dies remaining in stock.

(As you might imagine, these dies are selling extremely well in all three grades, but of course, the higher 2 grades, which are the rarest to begin with, will probably be the first to sell out.)

COLLECTORS ITEMS

This unique group which we are now dispersing is particularly desirable, as many of these dies were selected by their former owner as having the most remaining detail of the entire hoard.

We offer you these exciting collector's items in three grades based on the amount of remaining detail on the die.
